R. & L. Co.'s wharf. The Puritan is a vessel of 584 tons register. On March 7th at about 4 o'clock in the afternoon, while the vessel was moving at a ten-knot rate, Augustus F. Wekstrom, second officer, fell overboard. The vessel was immediately hove to and pieces of wood and other floating materials were thrown out as life saving apparatus for the relief of the unfortunate man. A thorough search was made, but no signs of the man were known afterward. The opinion of all on board

The schooner Liholiho leaves today for Hanamaulu, Kauai, to discharge her 100 tons of Laysan Island guano.

London, April 2.-The new Cunard leviathan steamed from Glasgow around Ireland and up the Irish channel, entering the Mersey yesterday. She behaved well in all respects, but it is too early to say whether she can develop the speed expected. Most of the run was made at an average rate, for the liner's machinery was in almost perfect order. It was necessary to slow down for an hour off Queenstown, but there was no mishap of any sort. NEW ORLEANS, March 31 .- Anxety for the missing Italian steamer Stura, now thirteen days overdue, has increased since the arrival today of the British steamer Wickham from Palermo, which reports fine weather the entire voyage, and which came over the route which the Stura is supposed to have taken. The Stura carries a crew of fortyfive men and is owned by the Italian Navigation Company of Paler-

are. For some time a story has been afloat to the effect that the deposed Queen was to be restored by order of Commissioner Blount. For some reason the expected has woman explains it in this way: President Dole was ordered to crawl on his hands and knees from the Government Building to Washington Place, where the ex-Queen resides, and on his arrival there he was to carry her to the Palace while he was in the same position. This he refused to do, and it explains why Liliuokalani has not been restored.
